Nos mienten (Spanish Edition) Eduardo Vaquerizo

Una brillante distopía sobre el futuro inmediato de España que aúna aventura y denuncia social

Los pueblos que olvidan su futuro están condenados a sufrirlo

España, mediados del siglo XXI. La resaca de la crisis ha dejado un mundo en el que las megacorporaciones dominan una sociedad hipertecnológica erigida sobre las ruinas de los Estados. El crecimiento salvaje de la desigualdad ha convertido el centro de las ciudades en grandes fortalezas donde viven y trabajan los privilegiados, rodeadas por inmensos barrios periféricos llenos de un ejército de desheredados cada vez más descontentos. Nora Robles trabaja en Madrid como guardaespaldas para uno de los hombres más poderosos del país. Su vida es sencilla. Ella y su marido esperan poder tener un hijo, comprarse un piso, sobrevivir. Hasta que se ve obligada a emprender una frenética huida para resolver un crimen del que ha sido acusada injustamente.

En una sociedad donde el capitalismo por fin se ha quitado la careta y la injusticia alcanza extremos insoportables, donde la tecnología está al servicio de unos pocos y el sistema ha hipotecado hasta el aire que se respira, la aventura de Nora es la aventura de los que buscan un cambio, de los que no aceptan rendirse. Y ella no es la única dispuesta a resistir.

Nos mienten es algo más que una novela, es un grito de auxilio desde el mañana.
