Um Rastro De Fumaça (Portuguese Edition) Rebecca Cantrell

Neste premiado romance, uma repórter policial vasculha os becos e cabarés de Berlim à procura do assassino de seu irmão. Berlim, 1931, o ano em que a Alemanha foi perdida para o Nazismo. Integrantes da tropa de assalto brigam nas ruas com os comunistas. Judeus ricos e intelectuais pensam em fugir do país. Excluídos sociais e sexuais lotam as famosas boates de Berlim atrás de uma última dança. Hannah Vogel vive sozinha e trabalha como repórter policial. Cumprindo uma pauta de rotina, ela encontra uma foto do corpo de seu irmão na ala dos mortos não identificados. Mas, como havia emprestado seus documentos para amigos judeus que tentavam fugir do país, não poderia identificar o corpo e abrir uma investigação pela morte do irmão. Por isso, decide ir pessoalmente à caça do assassino. Resenhas: "Narrativa audaciosa e ambientação histórica arrepiante... um contexto de rara intensidade, [faz com que] Hannah descreva a decadência do seu mundo sem perder a própria vida - ou a cabeça". - The New York Times Book Review"Um corajoso retrato realista da Berlim dos anos 1930... mantendo o suspense em alta, Cantrell desempenha com sucesso a tarefa de projetar o medo da época em seus personagens. Fortemente recomendado". - Library Journal"[Um] romance de estreia assustador... evocativo, apaixonante e irresistível". - Kirkus Review"Cantrell revela tanto a atmosfera de 'a vida é um cabaré', quanto o desespero que existe dentro das bolhas de champanhe... uma estreia promissora" - Booklist"Ambientado em Berlim em 1931, o romance rico em pesquisa de Cantrell lança um hino fúnebre e sombrio sobre os últimos dias da Alemanha Weimar... este romance inesquecível, tão doloroso de ler, quanto a história na qual se baseia, evolui para um final acertadamente agriçoce". - Publishers Weekly"Uma história irresistível e humana que captura com brilhantismo a atmosfera de Berlim durante a ascensão dos nazistas" - Anne Perry, autora de We Shall Not Sleep, na list
