This inspirational, God-inspired book encourages all genuine believers and followers of the Lord Jesus Christ to hold fast to their faith in the Lord and His word. It emphasizes that no matter what comes against them, no matter what opposition and delays, God's promises will certainly and undoubtedly come to fulfillment. Drawing upon the lessons of the lives of Jesus, Lot, Abraham, and Joseph, the author seeks to disabuse the mind of believers and hopefuls that delays are not denials nor are they signs of God's unwillingness to keep His word. Even through darkness and uncertainties, God orchestrates all things to work in our favor. Asserting that the lack of patience, faith, diligence, and perseverance are among the many reasons why many believers miss out on God's promises, these writings encourage us to learn from those in the Bible who received promises from God and surmounted great obstacles to achieve their desired haven, thus proving God's faithfulness to His word Citing scripture passages and offering inspirational comments, as well as key nuggets of wisdom, And It Came to Pass will both encourage and inspire all persons of faith to remain true to God's words and to know that His promises shall surely come to pass – if you would only have faith and...wait! Innocent Okoliko's motivational writing will show you how.
