Tulipanes salvajes en agua de rosas: La novela de amor (Spanish Edition) JORGE ASIS

La historia, enmarcada por los conflictos en Medio Oriente -descriptos con la singularidad y agudeza característica de Jorge Asís-, cuenta la apasionada relación amorosa entre el prestigioso catedrático Fahd y su alumna, Yashira. Todo marcha fluidamente entre ellos hasta que el profesor comienza a ir a demasiadas fiestas, incitado por su amigo periodista, y conoce a una deslumbrante francesa, llamada Samara. Desde ese momento, el amor de la joven novia se vuelve obsesivo y queda atrapada por los celos. Sus encuentros se enfrían y se distancian hasta verse solo los fines de semana, cuando ella llena el departamento de tulipanes que hierve en agua de rosas, un hechizo infalible, con el afán de que el profesor vuelva a sus brazos.

El autor de «Flores robadas en los jardines de Quilmes» ha regresado a la ficción con su narrativa vital y desenfadada.
