The Necromancers Robert Hugh Benson

An early entry in what would become known as the horror genre, this spellbinding classic has captivated readers for generations

Following the death of his fiancée, Laurie Baxter becomes consumed by an obsession with the supernatural. Attempting to reach his deceased bride, he attends rituals and séances, delving ever deeper into the dark embrace of the occult. But instead of reconnecting with his lost love, Laurie is brought into contact with forces far more sinister.

Written by a Catholic priest, The Necromancers is a chilling warning against dabbling in the dark arts.
