Raising sons to be men who are NOT from Mars is the challenge for Karin Kasdin and all mothers of sons. In Oh Boy Oh Boy Oh Boy!, she tells the truth about raising three sons when her own experience of childhood and adolescence was female. It is a thoughtful, loving, and hilarious narrative of lessons learned and foibles recounted. The subtheme of wanting a daughter in spite of how much you love your sons taps into longings many mothers of sons know. A witty, thought-provoking read.
