Una lección de vida y muerte (Spanish Edition) Belinda Bauer

«Los thrillers de Belinda Bauer son siempre convincentes, originales, brillantes.» Mark Billingham

La pequeña Ruby Trick vive en Limeburn, un pequeño pueblo del condado inglés de Devon, un lugar en el bosque, hundido entre la colina y el mar y cercano a otro pueblo, Clovelly.

En medio de este paisaje idílico, una serie de crímenes comienzan a tener lugar, aterrorizando la zona. Dos mujeres jóvenes han sido asesinadas, y el asesino, antes de matarlas, las obligó a llamar a sus madres, para que estas oyeran los gritos desesperados de sus hijas.

A cargo del caso están Calvin Bridge, un policía algo novato, y la inspectora jefe Kirsty King, una mujer seria y profesional. Sin embargo, algunos hombres de Clovelly, y entre ellos el padre de Ruby, John Trick, deciden tomarse la justicia por su cuenta y salir cada noche a las calles a la caza del culpable.

Ruby acompaña a su padre en estas patrullas; así podrá pasar más tiempo con él mientras intentan encontrar desesperadamente al asesino, a no ser que este la atrape a ella primero.

«Belinda Bauer es una de las mejores escritoras de la narrativa inglesa actual.» Simon Kernick

«Su prosa es brillante, sus tramas inteligentes y demuestra poseer una afilada visión sobre los lugares y las personas.» Literary Review
