A Wolf's Deception (Novella) Sherilee Gray

He'd been an outcast his whole life, but it never mattered with her by his side. Then she betrayed him in the worst way possible, and he will have his revenge.

Gabriel Reed knows rejection. There's no room in a pack for a hybrid. But he finally found happiness when he met Tressa McCray. He thought love would save him from a lifetime of loneliness—until Tressa broke his heart and mated with another. Now her mate is dead, she's on the run, and Gabe is asked to bring her back safely. He is the only one who can keep her and her son safe. There's no reason for Gabe to get involved—no reason, except that while he can never forgive her, he's never stopped loving her.

Tressa McCray sacrificed everything—including her own happiness—to protect the man she loved and their unborn cub. Now her nightmare may finally be over—if she can make it safely back to Black Hills land. Her mate's pack can never know the truth, or take control of her young son.

But the one man she would never call, the one she could never forget, has shown up to help. With the lies and the secrets and the pain, can she really ask him to risk his life to save hers and that of the son he doesn't know he has?
