Project Leadership from Theory to Practice Pinto Jeffrey K., Thomas Peg, Trailer Jeffrey, Palmer Todd, Govekar Michele

This provocative book combines theory and practice and is the first of its kind to develop a complete model of the project leader function in modern corporations. It addresses such diverse, but equally important, roles of project leader as visionary, strategic manager and ethical leader. It is a hands-on guide detailing the specific steps you will need to follow in creating a project vision, reaching all project stakeholders and selling that vision. You will also learn about a wide range of leader duties-manager, problem solver, facilitator, trainer, communicator, advocate-and discover how each duty affects your ability to create a cohesive project team.
