The Turning of the Tide Richard Overy

The Turning of the Tide is the third part of a four-volume series, published in association with the Imperial War Museum, covering the six-year global conflagration of the Second World War. The other titles in the series are Blitzkrieg, Axis Ascendant and The Struggle for Victory. The Turning of the Tide charts the period when the Allies began to make consistent ground against the Axis. It opens in Russia with the epic battle for Stalingrad and the start of the German westward retreat that would not end until the Battle for Berlin two years later. In Africa the Allied armies met with Rommel's Afrika Korps at El Alamein. In the Far East the bitter struggle with the Japanese continues, but this time in the Allies' favour. And on mainland Europe the Allies finally gained significant ground with the invasion and eventual surrender of one of the major Axis Powers - Italy. The Turning of the Tide is also part of the wider André Deutsch ebook only series A World at War.
