Can a kidnapped fairy and a human find love despite all odds?

Nathan Alexander's batty aunt has done it again. This time she's sent him a rare plant he doesn't want. Imagine his surprise when he finds a kidnapped fairy hidden within its leaves. As a man who heads a non-profit organization for abused women and children, Nathan makes it his mission to help her find her way home.

All her life Katenia was warned about the evilness of humans. Never was that proved more true than when she was kidnapped from her quiet valley home. Thrust into the human world, Katenia must fight her very instincts to trust Nathan if she ever hopes to return to her rightful place. . .and to her normal thumb-sized fairy form.

But with their lives in danger, finding home. . .and love. . .will be a journey worthy of a fairy tale.

"Ms. Ashe wants her readers to believe in the power of magic and that ordinary people can do extraordinary things for love. Her story makes that possible." —Eye on Romance

"If you're looking for a quick trip into a world of fairies and seriously hot sex? EVER MINE might be just the way to spend an afternoon." —All Things Urban Fantasy
