Filosofía política (Cladema Filosofía) (Spanish Edition) Mario Bunge

Los politólogos describen y explican la política; los filósofos la examinan de manera crítica y sugieren mejoramientos y, en ocasiones, rasgos sociales radicalmente diferentes. En otras palabras, los filósofos políticos proponen escenarios y sueños allí donde los científicos sociales ofrecen instantáneas de organizaciones políticas existentes. La filosofía política no es un lujo sino una necesidad, decisiva para entender la actualidad política y, sobre todo, para pensar un futuro mejor. Pero, para que preste semejante servicio, esta disciplina deberá formar parte de un sistema coherente al que también pertenezcan una teoría realista del conocimiento, una ética humanista y una visión del mundo acorde con la ciencia y la técnica contemporáneas. En este sentido, una política responsable no debería estar fundada en la ideología sino en la filosofía, especialmente en la ética, así como en la tecnología social, la cual resulta efectiva únicamente cuando está sustentada en una ciencia social seria y rigurosa. El otro eje vertebrador de Filosofía política es un análisis de la posibilidad de ampliar la democracia del terreno político a los demás terrenos pertinentes: la administración de la riqueza, el entorno natural y la cultura. Y aquí Mario Bunge vuelve a sugerir una alternativa tanto al capitalismo en crisis como al socialismo ya fenecido y que nunca fue genuino. Esa alternativa es la democracia integral: es decir, igualdad de acceso a las riquezas naturales, igualdad de sexos y razas, igualdad de oportunidades económicas y culturales, y participación popular en la administración de los bienes comunes. Atento al rumbo de nuestro mundo, en Filosofía política Mario Bunge nos muestra su faceta de ciudadano preocupado por el devenir histórico.
