American Sports: From the Age of Folk Games to the Age of Televised Sports (Paperback) - Common

By (author) Benjamin G. Rader

Completely updated and revised, American Sports sets sports in a social-cultural historical context. This highly-acclaimed book offers a reflective, analytical history of American sports from the colonial era to the present. With a focus on the historical relationship between sports, and gender, class, race, ethnicity, religion, and region, this book considers how sports transcend these fundamenta...
