La gran tentación: el petróleo de México (Spanish Edition) Andrés Manuel López Obrador

La gran tentación: el petróleo de México*, escrito por Andrés Manuel López Obrador y editado por Grijalbo, es una obra, sólida y concisa, con apenas algo más de 200 páginas, y se suma, por méritos propios, a la bibliografía fundamental sobre el tema petrolero en México.

El título, surgido -se precisa- de una conversación del cha Reza Pahlevi con Ryszard Kapuscinski, muestra que, al menos en los últimos 100 años, la idea de controlar los hidrocarburos del país ha constituido, para los países dominantes y las corporaciones petroleras, la gran tentación.

El libro se organiza en tres grandes secciones. La primera proporciona un recuento analítico de la historia del petróleo en México, desde las primeras explotaciones, hace algo más de un siglo, en el porfiriato, hasta 1982. La segunda aborda el periodo de alrededor de un cuarto de siglo, del predominio de las políticas neoliberales. En el sector petrolero, de manera cada vez más clara y por completo evidente a partir del nuevo siglo, estas políticas se han orientado a colocar sus recursos al servicio de intereses no sólo distintos, sino contrarios a los de un desarrollo nacional autónomo y participativo. La tercera se refiere a la esperanza. A las opciones abiertas por el Movimiento en Defensa del Petróleo, orientadas a convertir los hidrocarburos -el petróleo y el gas- en el fundamento de un desarrollo diferente, de un modelo alternativo, que sirva a los mexicanos y, por el bien de todos, primero a los pobres.
