Profesionales afroperuan@s en Lima: un drama anunciado (Spanish Edition) Liuba Kogan

La marginalidad histórica de la población afroperuana es tan eficaz que los afroperuanos contemporáneos tienden a no identificar su lazo histórico con el continente africano: aquí todos somos peruanos, declaran, desconociendo dicho vínculo (Oboler, 1996). A diferencia de los países con un porcentaje importante de población afro cuya historia de esclavitud -fundada en el sistema de plantaciones- coadyuvó al surgimiento de Estados-nación imaginados bajo el eje racial blanco/negro, en el Perú el eje organizador del imaginario nacional se fundó en la relación indio/mestizo/blanco, excluyendo la negritud como parte constitutiva de la nación (Sue y Golash-Boza, 2009).
